

What is Personal Independence Payment (PIP)?

PIP

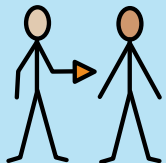

PIP

PIP is a benefit that some people with a disability get.

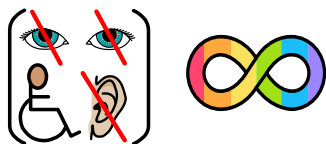

It gives you extra money that you might need to look after yourself

You can get PIP if you:

16+

Are 16 or older

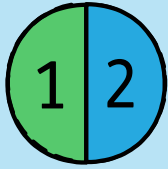

Have a long term disability or condition

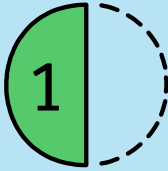

Find it hard to do things like cooking or washing

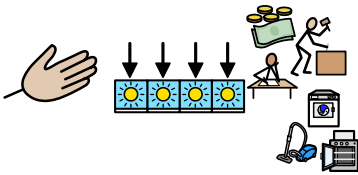

Find it hard to go outside of your home

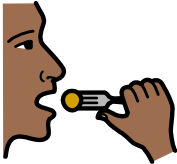

PIP has 2 parts

Part 1 is called Daily Living

This is if you need help with daily tasks like:

Eating

Washing

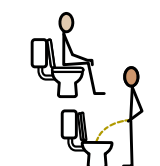

Getting dressed

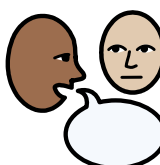

Reading

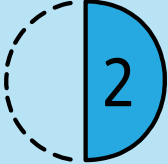

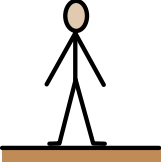

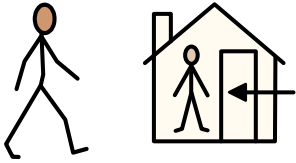

Taking medicine

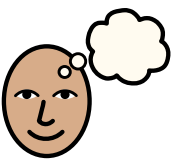

Using the toilet

Talking to other people

	Part 2 is called Mobility
	This is if you need help with:
	Standing
	Walking
	Moving inside your home
	Travelling outside of your house
	Planning a journey

	It also helps people who:
	Have learning disabilities
	Have anxiety

What happens

after you've contacted

DWP

the DWP?

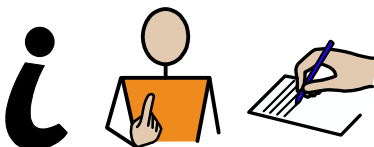

The DWP will send you a form called PIP2

The form will ask you for more information about your disability or condition

It will also ask you about what help and equipment you need

Put as much information on the form as you can 28

days

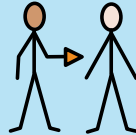

You have 28 days to fill in and send back the form

What happens

sent

the form?

	The DWP will look at your form and make a decision
	This can take a few weeks
	They might ask you to go to an in-person meeting
	They might send you a letter to arrange a phone call
	The DWP will never call you without warning
	They will then send you a letter telling you if you have been awarded PIP or not

	If you have been awarded PIP
	The letter will tell you how much money you will receive every 4 weeks. You now have PIP

	If you have not been awarded PIP
	You can contact DWP and ask them if they can review their decision
	This is where they look at your application again
	If they still decide to not award you PIP, you will have to reapply
